

Safeguarding Policy Statement

The purpose of this policy statement is:

- to protect children and young people who receive PQA's services from harm.
- to provide staff, as well as children and young people and their families, with the overarching principles that guide our approach to child protection.

This policy applies to anyone working for and/or on behalf of PQA.

Legal framework

This policy has been drawn up based on legislation, policy and guidance that seeks to protect children in England, Scotland & Wales.

Supporting documents

This policy statement should be read alongside our organisational policies, procedures, guidance, and other related documents, including:

- Role description PQA Safeguarding
- Dealing with disclosures and concerns about a child or young person
- Managing allegations against adults who work with children
- Recording concerns and information sharing
- Behaviour code for adults working with children
- Photography and sharing images guidance
- Safer recruitment
- Online safety
- Anti-bullying policy
- Complaints
- Whistleblowing

We believe that:

- children and young people should never experience abuse of any kind
- we have a responsibility to promote the welfare of all children and young people, to keep them safe and to practice in a way that protects them.

We recognise that:

Mel Leicester-Evans
Head of Safeguarding

- the welfare of children is paramount in all the work we do and in all the decisions we take
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation have an equal right to protection from all types of harm or abuse
- some children are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their level of dependency, communication needs or other issues
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, careers, and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare

We will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- valuing, listening to and respecting them
- appointing a nominated Safeguarding lead for children and young people
- adopting child protection and safeguarding best practice through our policies, procedures, and behaviour code for staff
- recruiting and selecting staff safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- recording, storing, and using information professionally and securely, in line with data protection legislation and guidance
- using our safeguarding and child protection procedures to share concerns and relevant information with agencies who need to know
- using our procedures to manage any allegations against our children, young people, staff, and representatives appropriately
- creating and maintaining an anti-bullying environment and ensuring that we have a policy and procedure to help us deal effectively with any bullying that does arise
- ensuring that we have effective complaints and whistleblowing measures in place
- ensuring that we provide a safe physical environment for our children, young people, and staff, by applying health and safety measures in accordance with the law and regulatory guidance
- building a safeguarding culture where staff, children and young people treat each other with respect and are comfortable about sharing concerns.

Contact details:

Name: Mel Leicester-Evans

Head of Safeguarding

Email: mel.leicester-evans@pqacademy.com

Email: safeguarding@pqacademy.com

This policy statement came into force on 01/05/2022

We are committed to reviewing our policy and good practice annually.

This policy statement and accompanying procedures were last reviewed on 03/08/2022

Signed:

Mel Leicester-Evans

Head of Safeguarding

Date: 03/08/2022

*Mel Leicester-Evans
Head of Safeguarding*

Mel Leicester-Evans
Head of Safeguarding